ABOUT BISHOP SANDRA STEINER BALL

Sandra L. Steiner Ball was ordained Deacon and Elder in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. She has served as an associate pastor, lead pastor, District Superintendent, and Director of Connectional Ministries (DCM). She also served as interim pastor of Bayside Chapel, a new church start. Sandra was in this position when elected to the episcopacy by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference (NEJ) in 2012 and assigned to the West Virginia Area. Bishop Steiner Ball was elected delegate to the 2008 and 2012 General Conferences of The UM Church and to the NEJ. Prior to election, she served the general church in a variety of areas, including the Interjurisdictional

Episcopacy Committee, the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, the UM Endorsing Agency, and the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy. For the 2016 - 2020 quadrennium, Bishop Steiner Ball was re-assigned as the episcopal leader of the West Virginia area and has responsibilities with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Bishop Steiner Ball is one of three moderators on the Commission on the Way Forward, and chairs the annual U. S. DS/DCM training. She is Vice Chairperson of the WV Council of Churches and Co-chairs a task force of the Council working to address substance abuse and addiction in the WV area.

Bishop Steiner Ball and her husband, Rev. Barry D. Steiner Ball, have two daughters: Sarah Elizabeth and Sandra Rebekah.
