Opening Prayer - from Ignatius of Loyola

Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labor and not to ask for reward, except that of knowing that we do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music: "Sound the Battle Cry" - Edward Burckart. Leah Brown Holmes, violinist; Constance Leitner, pianist

Prayer Time:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

About today's soloist: Leah Brown Holmes

Leah Brown Holmes is a violinist specializing in a wide array of music, ranging from classical to blue grass and jazz. At the age of four she began instruction under the tutelage of several teaching members of the Central Pennsylvania Suzuki Association. At the age of 12, Leah participated in a nationwide search and was selected to play in the Walt Disney's Young Musicians Symphony Orchestra in Cerritos, CA. During her high school career at Susquehanna Township where she like Alex Bender, trumpeter, had Kerm Leitner as her principal, she competed at the NAACP ACT-SO national convention in New Orleans, LA. Leah has played in a number of jazz bands, orchestras, and ensembles. In college, she was featured on the University of Miami promotional commercial that aired on national television during sporting events for several years. Leah has recently begun training to become a Suzuki violin instructor herself, and has started both of her children on strings. She continues to play in both leisure and professional settings within the community. Mrs. Holmes has collaborated with Mrs. Leitner at CUMC for the past seven years in sacred music for services, weddings and funerals.

Leah holds an MA from John Jay University in Forensic Psychology and is the Admissions Director at Lancaster Behavioral Health Hospital.
